Commodore's Comments

Ed for Mike who is recuperating: September 20th was again overcast and cool. We had a light breeze from the NW. The currents were forecast to be a flood changing to an ebb during the contest. Congratulations to Magnus Karlsson of Coronado Yacht Club for predicting it correctly with 0.7532% error winning first place. Garry Adalian of CCYC was second with 1.1327% and Paul Vance was third with 1.1557%. All excellent scores!

Coronado Cays Yacht Club will host the October 25th, Harbor 3 of 4. The guest slip may be available. Contact Garry Adalian early.

See you in October,

Ed Denaci

Vice Commodore's Comments

It was nice to be back on the Bay again after the 4 Bluewaters. Those of us that did the ocean races all were wondering where G3 was for all the races. Well, it's sitting on the back of a Buoy Tender that's tied up at the 10th Ave. Terminal. Darrel saw it when we went by the Terminal on the leg from the Bridge to the Navy Pier. Maybe Ed can use it for one of our next races.

Back to this race. The conditions were great except for that the current changed from a flood to an ebb right in the middle of the race. Magnus knocked it dead with a .7! Nobody was even close to that. No more excuses Magnus.

Next month we are hosted by Coronado Cays YC. Those that have been to the after race lunch that they serve know what a great setting by the bay and the great lunch they serve. Even if you don't make the race, please come on down. You won't be disappointed. Those of you that want to bring your boat down after the race, please let me know ahead of time so I can reserve the Guest Dock with the Dockmaster.

See you next month,

Garry Adalian
